

Kung Fu

One show only

Chinese martial arts is referred to as “Wushu” in mandarin Chinese, and widely known as “Kung Fu” around the world.

Legend has it that Chinese martial arts originated more than 4,000 years ago in the semi-mythical Xia Dynasty.

The long, uninterrupted history of China has given Chinese martial arts ample opportunity to develop and assimilate into Chinese culture and daily life. Core principles and philosophies of Chinese culture have also greatly influenced the development of the martial arts.

Many real and mythical martial art related figures have a place in some of the major legends and historical developments in Chinese history. The most well known of these include Monkey Magic, Three Kingdoms, Shaolin and Wudang.

More recently, Bruce Lee, Jackie Chan and Jet Li have imprinted some of the highlights of Chinese martial arts into the minds of millions if not billions of people. Now, millions of people around the world practice some form of the martial art.

The essence of this art clearly transcends the barriers of language, race, religion, gender, politics and age. It speaks right to the soul of people. If you are captivated by the martial art, you should not miss this performance.

WHEN:

Saturday 28th May,
7:00pm

WHERE:

Melbourne Sports
& Aquatic Centre
Aughtie Drive, Albert Park, VIC

TICKETS:

A Reserve $40
B Reserve $30
C Reserve $20

BUY AT:

www.kungfuevents.com.au

See the art that was 4,000 years in the making.

Don't miss out
Book your tickets now!

China Kung Fu spectacular

Witness the amazing Kung Fu-Wushu & Shaolin superstars of China

Experience the awesome energy of this performance, which will have you on the edge of your seat and wanting more!

This elite team of Kung Fu champions will amaze you with their skills and athleticism.

See the ever-popular Shaolin forms, weaponry and legendary Kung Fu styles such as:

- Monkey Style (as seen in Jackie Chan & Jet Li movies)
- Drunken Style (also seen in Jackie Chan & Jet Li classics)
- Shaolin Cudgel
- Shaolin Straight Sword & Broad Sword
- Spear
- Nine Section Whip
- Weapon duels
- Tai Chi
- and lots more!

One show only - Don't miss out - Book Now!

About the China Kung Fu Team

The team will perform 1 show only in Melbourne, as part of their Asia-Pacific tour.

The Melbourne show is officially acknowledged as part of events to celebrate Year of Chinese Culture (2011-2012).

All 22 athletes in the team are champions in their specialized categories.

The team has won over 160 gold medals in China's national championships, and 6 gold medals in Asia and World Kung Fu Wushu Championships.

